MAKCO SAFETY POLICY

MAKCO strives to maintain the safest possible working conditions for its Employees. The success of any safety program depends upon the safety consciousness and intelligent cooperation of everyone. Employees are informed of special safety regulations when required. Employees are asked to become familiar with these rules and observe them at all times. Employees are encouraged to report any potential safety hazards to their supervisors immediately.

The Company has a responsibility to;

1) Improve the safety and health for all workers, as evidenced by fewer hazards, reduced exposures, and fewer injuries, illnesses, and fatalities;

2) Change workplace culture to increase employer and worker awareness of, commitment to, and involvement in safety and personal health;

3) Secure public confidence through excellence in the development and delivery of Safety programs and services;

4) Commit and ensure that all operational and construction activities are performed in an environmentally safe and responsible manner.
